PARTNERSHIP OPPORTUNITY

Shape the Future of Rice Science

Sponsoring ICRF 2026 connects your organization with leading national and international scientists, rice researchers, and the next generation of agricultural innovators. This is your platform to build visibility, forge meaningful partnerships, and contribute to advancing sustainable rice science for a food-secure future.

The conference will be held 23–24 November 2026 in Centara Grand Ladprao Bangkok, Thailand — bringing together experts from across the globe for presentations, workshops, and an exhibition floor open to sponsors and exhibitors.
